SNYDER SLAYERS DIE WITH PRAYER ON LIPS

"STRANGLER" GOES TO DEATH PROCLAIMING HIS INNOCENCE

Earl Nelson Walks to Gallows in Winnipeg, Man. DENIES MURDER Pays Penalty for Killing American Woman.

WINNIPEG, Man., Jan. 13.—Proclaiming his innocence to the last, Earl Nelson, known as the "strangler," went to his death on the gallows in the provincial jail yard here at 7:48 this morning. "I declare my innocence before God and man and I forgive those who have injured me," Nelson said just before the death cap was placed over his head. Nelson was convicted of the murder of Mrs. Emily Patterson, who was found strangled to death here last June. He claimed to be an American citizen and gave San Francisco as his home.

200 Miles of Coast. Bring Money and Brains. Snyder Slayers Die. Lives Are Cheap.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE
[The opinions expressed in this column are strictly those of Mr. Brisbane and not necessarily in consonance with the policies of The Review-Tribune.]

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., Jan. 13. AMONG our 48 states, California stands fifth in wealth, climate and scenery, as a Los Angeles editor remarks, not included. A 250-mile motor trip, from San Simeon, south to Ventura before noon today, convinced this writer, and would convince anyone, that California, in the future, will have wealth greater than the present total wealth of the United States.

THE sun, almost uncomfortably hot, shines on fields covered with deep green new grass and clover. Thousands of cows, in the dairy district north of San Luis Obispo, seem almost bored with their luxury, as they stand knee deep in rich pasture.

Part of the time, the wide concrete road runs close to the ocean, more of it runs through fertile valleys, round green hills in either side providing unlimited grazing lands.

WHERE the velvet green carpet is stripped off on hillsides the earth below is black as soot, rich as Texas black wax land, and with "spring" crops well advanced.

There is wealth of all kinds in this land, its mines, oil wells, and water power. But the great wealth, permanent, inexhaustible, is in the soil.

A RUN of a little more than 200 miles takes you to Ventura, where hundreds of men are working their wells out in the ocean, and running temporary oil pipe lines along the roadside, dozens of welders uniting the pipe joints with gaseous fire, fed from tanks.

LINDY MAY DEFER HOP FROM PANAMA

PANAMA, Jan. 13. — Although scheduled to leave today for Venezuela, on the northern coast of South America, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh may decide not to take off. It all depends on the condition of his plane, "The Spirit of St. Louis."

With that caution which thus far has carried him through his world-renowned flights in safety, the flying colonel would not commit himself definitely to any specific starting time.

"Before going to Venezuela," he said, "I want to have my ship's motor carefully inspected and I am not sure how long it will take. I am sorry, but I cannot say yet when I will take off."

Three Shocks Kill Widow, Two Send Her Lover Into Eternity

GRAY REGRETTED CRIME DISGRACE
OSSINING, N. Y., Jan. 13.—Henry Judd Gray went to his death without understanding why he drifted along the path of wrongdoing that led to murder, his attorney, Samuel L. Miller said today. Miller was one of the last to see Judd alive. "I don't yet understand why I did it," Miller quoted Gray as saying. "My only regret is the sorrow and the disgrace I have brought upon my wife, my mother, my daughter and my folks."

SEEK CLOTHING FOR CHILDREN OF STRIKERS

Red Cross Appeals in Behalf of Miners. SCOUTS TO AID Underwear and Shoes Needed for Tots, 3 to 14.

Officers of the East Liverpool chapter of the American Red Cross today issued an appeal for clothing for 185 children of West Point miners, who are reported to be in destitute circumstances.

Boy Scout headquarters in the Betz building, Market street, and the first Baptist church, West Fifth street, have been designated as receiving stations. The church will be open all day Saturday and Monday to receive bundles.

Underwear and shoes are especially needed, although children's clothing of all kinds will be solicited in the campaign. The children range in age from 3 to 14 years.

Rev. A. H. O'Brien, chairman of the Red Cross chapter, visited West Point early this week to investigate the needs of the miners. The appeal for help was carried to the Red Cross by a committee from the striking miners.

The West Point mines have been closed since early in December 1926. Local wholesale grocers, it is said, have extended credit to West Point grocers with whom the miners deal.

POPO DEATH CASE NEAR JURY

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Jan. 13.—Following arguments the case of Curtis Jones, of North Jackson, charged with manslaughter for alleged participation in the killing of Tony Popo, October 24, last, was to go to the jury here today.

Popo, a crippled farm-hand, was shot to death in a fight with 12 men, who sought to recover from him a horse and a calf, ownership of which was in dispute.

INTER-CITY BUS LINE OPPOSED

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 13.—Claiming existing transportation facilities are adequate, officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad company today protested to the State Utilities Commission against the application of The Steubenville-Canton Transportation company for permission to extend its route so as to operate between East Liverpool and Wellsville.

The commission authorized the Columbiana Bus company, Salem, to discontinue one 24-passenger bus between Salem and East Palestine.

BODIES OF RUTH AND JUDD, WHO DIED FORGIVING EACH OTHER, ARE SPIRITED OUT OF SING SING

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The body of Ruth Snyder arrived at Woodlawn cemetery today at the head of a pitiful funeral procession. The speeding hearse was followed by a car in which rode Andrew Judd, the dead woman's brother and the only member of her family present. There were no former friends.

The body was placed in a vault pending funeral services, which will be held later.

Thus the woman who helped Judd Gray murder her husband as the re-

PRETTY VELMA WEST INDICTED FOR MURDER OF HER HUSBAND

Blue-eyed Blonde Will be Arraigned Monday. SPEEDY TRIAL First Degree Count Against Perry, O., Widow.

PAINESVILLE, O., Jan. 13.—Velma West, youthful blue-eyed blonde, will go on trial for the hammer-slaying of her husband, Thomas Edward West, sometime in February, it was indicated here today.

Next Monday, according to present indications, Mrs. West will be arraigned before Common Pleas Judge A. G. Reynolds to plead to an indictment charging first degree murder, which was returned against her by the Lake county grand jury late yesterday. It is expected she will enter a plea of not guilty.

Indictment of the "split-personality" widow, followed four days of inquiry by the grand jury, during which more than 50 witnesses were examined.

Shows No Emotion.

"I am disappointed," Mrs. West declared today, according to attaches of the sheriff's office, "I was led to believe by my attorneys that the charge would be second degree or manslaughter." She showed no undue emotion over her indictment, however, merely expressing a desire for a quick trial.

Apparently relieved of suspense by the grand jury's action, Mrs. West has gained control of herself, following several days of near-hysteria. She plays checkers and dominos with her guard, Mrs. Frank Nash, who was assigned to her cell early this week.

The crime of which Mrs. West is accused, has been described by Lake county authorities as the most brutal in the history of the county.

Thomas Edward West, 26-year-old son of a prominent Perry, O., nurseryman, was beaten to death with a hammer at the younger West's bungalow in Perry, on December 6.

Confessed Crime.

Arrested on the day following the murder, the youthful Mrs. West confessed the crime, according to Lake county authorities, after several hours of questioning. She broke down when suddenly asked to explain why she "left the back door of the cottage open."

Directly following the fatal hammer-attack, the widow motored to the home of a girl chum in Cleveland, where she calmly played bridge, sang songs and played the piano until near midnight. She slept at the chum's home and the next morning went on a shopping trip with her mother, Mrs. L. B. Van Woert, of East Cleveland.

It was an objection by her husband regarding her attendance at the bridge party which led to the fatal quarrel, it was said.

CHAPLAINS WALK WITH CONDEMNED

"Forgive Me, Father, for I Have Sinned," Murders Woman as She Sits in Electric Chair.

By James L. Kilgallen.
SING SING PRISON, OSSINING, N. Y., Jan. 13.—Tomb-like silence. Ruth Snyder in the electric chair. The crunching sound of the executioner ramming down a lever. A sinister whine and a crackling, sputtering sound like a Fourth of July sparkler. Silence. Another sputter. Silence — terrible silence that strained the eardrums and bore down like a terrific weight on the nerves of the eye-witnesses.

Petitions for Mercy.

And then the prison physician breaking the silence with these words: "I declare this woman dead."

Thus the woman who in gayer days was beautiful "Tommy" Snyder died. And gamely, too, with a prayer on her lips:

"Forgive me, Father, for I have sinned. Jesus have mercy on me. Forgive them, Father, for they know not what they do."

And a few minutes later her former sweetheart, Henry Judd Gray, died in the same chair, just as courageously and much in the same manner.

Three shocks were required to electrocute Ruth, two to send Judd into eternity.

Pay for Editor's Murder.

They had paid the extreme penalty for the sashweight murder of stolid Albert Snyder, the art editor who "didn't understand" his young wife, and whom they killed while he slept the night of March 20, 1927.

Ruth entered the chamber of death at 11:01 p. m. There was a rap at the door, over which was printed in large letters the word "Silence." She was supported by two matrons, and a guard. She was preceded by the Rev. John McCaffrey, prison chaplain.

Her light blue eyes gleamed brightly. Her chin was held high. Her lips quivered as she responded to the intonations of the priest. Her shoulders sagged and there were deep, grief-stricken creases in her face.

Her blonde, bobbed hair was carefully trimmed and slicked down.

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 13.—Fred J. Mery, who went out of office as mayor of Toledo January 1, was married in Chicago to Mrs. Harriet McKillen, former supervisor of the Toledo city nursery, several days ago, according to word reaching here today.

Mery's former wife obtained a divorce on grounds of neglect, Dec. 31. He did not contest the action. Mery is prominent in northern Ohio Republican circles.

Police refused to tell where the man was found.

The man was arrested after he is said to have wrecked a blood-spattered car he was driving.

DRAW 75 NAMES FOR PLACES AS MELLETT DEATH QUIZ JURORS

Judge W. F. Lones Presides at Lisbon Conference.

LENGEL PRESENT
Thirteen Will be Given Seats in Jury Box.

Second trial of Saranus A. Lengel, former Canton police, indicted for first degree murder in the plot against Don R. Mellett, Canton publisher, will open in common pleas court, Lisbon, at 10 o'clock Monday morning, Feb. 13.

Attorneys at Conference.

The date was set today by Judge W. F. Lones, following a conference with state and defense attorneys and the aged defendant, who was recently granted a change of venue by the Stark county common pleas court.

Attending the conference were Lengel's attorneys, W. B. Rodgers, Canton and K. H. Powell, Youngstown, and Prosecuting Attorney Henry W. Harter, Jr., and his assistant, James H. ## Count Felix Von Luckner

On all sides there is evidence that the world is forgetting the holocaust of 1914-18. Charity has supplanted enmity in the hearts of the peoples of all nations with the realization that the war into which the Hohenzollerns plunged millions of men is over. And good will ambassadors, thanks to the progress of aviation, have done their part in healing the wounds of that great conflict.

Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, the pioneer in aerial voyages across the Atlantic, flew from New York to Paris at an opportune time and captured the hearts of the Frenchmen. Chamberlain and Levine then hopped in their Bellanca plane from America to Germany, where they were greeted by late enemies and showered with honors. And now a German naval hero comes to the United States.

A graduate of the school of new diplomacy, Count Felix von Luckner, commander of the World war commerce raider "Seeadler," and soldier as well as sailor of fortune, who captured seventeen ships of the Allies, took the crews from them and sunk the vessels, without injury—in even the slightest degree—to any of the hundreds of prisoners, will be the guest of East Liverpool on Wednesday, January 25.

The mysterious "Sea Devil," who brought terror to the hearts of allied merchantmen during 1917-18, and who emerged from the world conflict as one of its best known and most beloved heroes because of the humanitarian motives that actuated his colorful career, will speak at the annual Chamber of Commerce dinner in the Travelers' hotel. He will be accompanied by his wife.

Count von Luckner, who ran away to sea as a boy and then served six years before the mast under an assumed name, sailing on American and British ships, is distinguished as the only German combatant who was officially honored by the American Legion and dined in England by the very men he outwitted during the war. He rose from a sailor's bunk to become a high officer of the Imperial German navy and a protégé of the kaiser.

He has been a kangaroo hunter, prize fighter, wrestler, beach comber and Mexican soldier, standing on guard before the door of President Diaz's palace in the southern republic, and his travels include a journey across America, where he worked as a cowboy, a harvester and even as a porter in New York hotels. And he fought in the battle of Jutland, and then his raider tricked its way through the tripple blockade established by the allied naval forces.

This intrepid buccaneer should have an interesting story for his East Liverpool audience.

Municipal Mergers

What is a city population or area? The question gains interest from the current scramble for bigness. Many cities are reaching out for larger area in order to take in more population and so make a better showing.

Some cities are at a manifest disadvantage, as far as national prestige is concerned, being left behind in the race for population merely because they have kept their old corporate limits and not annexed their suburbs.

Boston is a good example of this. She is credited with 787,000 people in 1925. These people cover an area of 27,000 acres, with hundreds of thousands just outside of her boundaries in separate municipalities. Los Angeles, on the other hand, has taken in all the land in sight, and indeed some a little beyond the horizon, having 250,000 acres for her 1,300,000 people to live on. Thus Los Angeles is spatially 60,000 acres larger than New York, which has 6,000,000 people.

Detroit and Cleveland, competitors in population, being respectively fourth and fifth in the country, have their area proportioned to their numerical size.

Pittsburgh, left behind in the race, is now planning to forge up toward the top with a grand coup. Her 1925 rating was 637,000 people, with 29,000 acres. A projected borough organization, taking in various outlying towns, is expected to bring Pittsburgh up at one jump to fourth place in the list, passing the wonder cities of Los Angeles and Detroit and ranking next after New York, Chicago and Philadelphia. Cleveland may take similar action before long.

There's no easier way to gain population, unless a city is built in a desert. Almost any town can do it. And as long as mere numbers have the fictitious importance given them by this generation, more and more of them will do it. We are in for a period of municipal consolidation corresponding to business consolidation.

Traffic Courtesy

Mostly, one hears about bad motorists, the ones who lack skill, experience or judgment in driving cars, or who are downright careless, reckless or selfish when at a steering wheel. They cause a generous proportion of the accidents and play havoc with successful traffic handling, yet they are really in the minority.

Motor Courtesy Week, observed in Cleveland the third week of this month, is designed to bring to light the other sort of driver, the one who is both skillful and courteous. Prizes are offered to motorists who are caught in outstanding acts of courtesy while driving and to the people who report such acts from their own observation.

A valuable result of such a contest in both the practice and appreciation of courtesy must be that it makes many people realize, perhaps for the first time, how numerous the good drivers really are.

There should also be a courtesy week for pedestrians, calling their attention to the place their own graciousness might have in preventing accidents and traffic jams.

Clarence Darrow, who makes a business of defending the country's most notorious criminals merely for philanthropic reasons, admits getting $65,000 for the defense of Loeb and Leopold, and says he "should have had four times that much." Sure, philanthropy comes high nowadays.

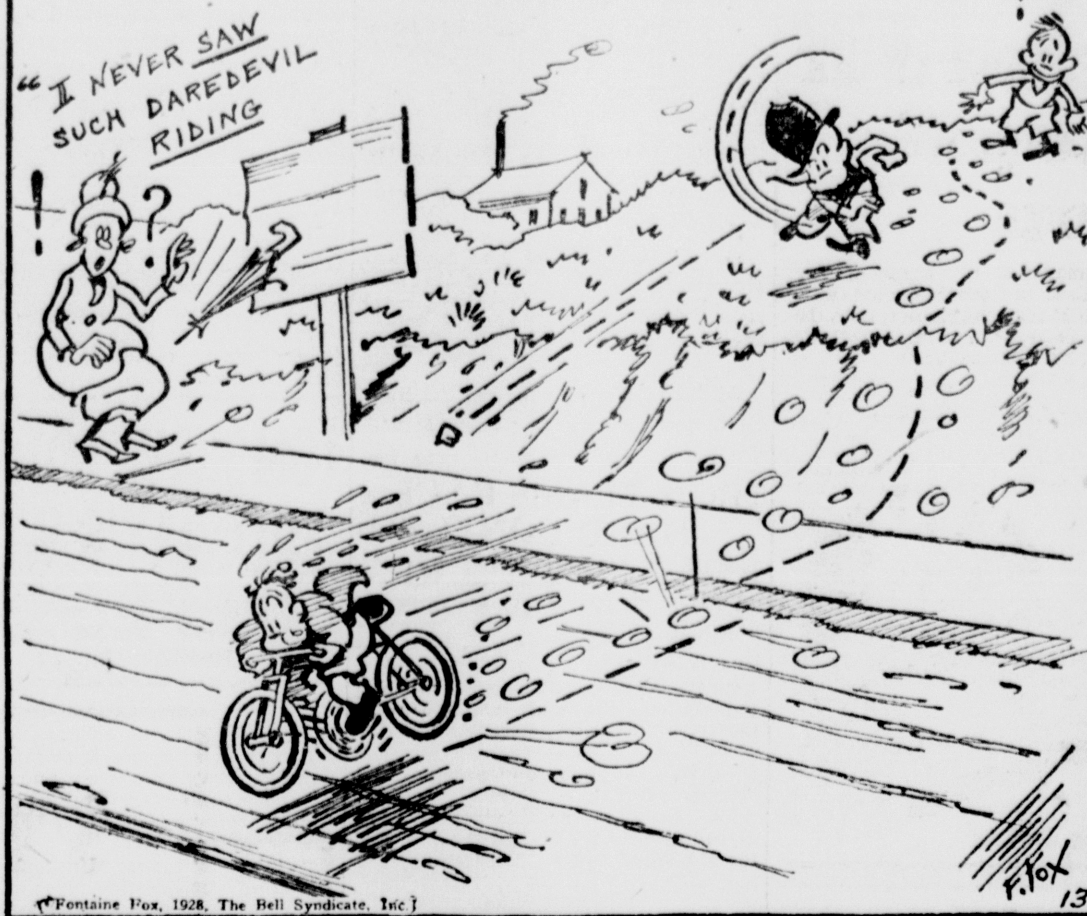

If America attains to a monopoly on musical composition, it will greatly simplify the work of radio announcers, if nothing more.

Lindbergh may have more trouble on the way home, being all weighed down with medals.

Mickey (Himself) McGuire—

By Fontaine Fox

THE FAT KID OFF WHOM MCGUIRE HAS CHASED SO MUCH WEIGHT THIS FALL, HAS BEEN PUTTING IT BACK ON AGAIN SINCE HE GOT THAT BIKE CHRISTMAS.

(Fontaine Fox, 1928, The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Thoughts while strolling: A drug store offers chill on carne. Chronic "Must Sell Stock—Lease Expiring" stores. The bridge expert who looks like Harry Thaw. A Gay Ninety touch—a tandem bicycle for sale. More little red dynamite huts. Wonder when New York will go back its streets? Lindy, the cafe man.

Those young West Pointers who seem inclined to shove you off the sidewalk. Delicatessen clerks in blue smocks. The cafe with a huge pile of "prop" hats on the rack—and often empty. Plappers with a Jean Eagles voice and police dogs. A. E. Matthews, the actor. Gloria Swanson is letting her hair grow.

Mumbling hags who fish in refuse cans. Hem stitching parlors with rows of bent backs. A push cart sale of carpet slippers. The shoeless patrons in the waiting room of an electrical mending shop. Those yapping lap dogs in limousines. May Allison and Jim Quick.

More Spanish restaurants. Speaking for myself, I don't like Spanish food, combs, shawls, guitars or dancing. Nor do I care for King Alfonso's profile. Ziegfeld gazing at his theatre from across the street. The veils that come over one eye. And those spirty tweed coats for ladies. A window dresser standing off to admire a wax dummy. Furniture stores appealing to honeymooners. While-you-wait print shops. Haberdasheries with most of their stock in the windows, that stay open all night. A patrol wagon backs up at a Turkish bath. Foreign magazine shops and quick lunches with radios.

Whatever became of 42d street's moving sidewalk? See the Lord's prayer on a pinhead—5 cents. Shivering clerks in desolate soft drink stands. Speaking of Harry Thaw—that look like him coming out of the Belmont. Scuffling red caps in front of Grand Central. Galloping commuters. The grand carpets spread to Twentieth Century trains. Information bureau clerks who never look at questioners. Faces solemn, gay and indifferent. The bright looking shops below the first level—selling everything from jewelry to fur coats.

A new club in an upper Broadway hotel features a bar for gentlemen.

Abe Martin Says:

"I don't git out much any more, but I git lots o' fun out o' jest watchin' th' papers t' see where th' next murderess bobs up, and what she'll use in th' way o' weapons." said Gran'maw Paah today. No matter how much strong, black coffee we drink, most any after-dinner speech 'll counteract it.

HASKIN'S LETTER

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

Convention Procedure.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 13.—The national conventions of the political parties which are now being planned by the national committees and their sub-committees are not only vital functions in the life of the nation and its government, but they are great spectacles, magnificent shows, stupendous exhibits and assemblages of oratorical talent, music, decoration, and enthusiasm. The staging of these conventions is as complicated a matter as promoting a world's championship prize fight, and indeed the Democrats had material aid in arranging their 1924 convention at Madison Garden from Tex Rickard, the fight promoter. Some unkind observers referred to it as the greatest battle Tex ever staged.

A national convention is a problem in seating, lighting, advertising, photography, journalism, acoustics, housing, transportation, finance, and many other arts and sciences, as well as a great political function helping to determine the destiny of the nation. It is one of America's greatest shows. As many people attend as can be got into the largest available auditorium, and there have been serious suggestions for holding them in outdoor stadiums, so that more could be present to view the performance. Most of the rest of the nation attends by radio.

The seating question is a very serious one. Few auditoriums seat more than ten thousand people, and there are sure to be a hundred thousand who would like to attend the convention. The delegates require about a thousand seats, and the alternates an equal number (1,100 in the Democratic convention) and each delegate and alternate expects one or two seats for friends. The press requires some 250 places for active correspondents, and an indefinitely larger number of editors, owners, managers, and special writers, including newspapers and magazines and feature services.

The convention city has paid a good fat sum into the party treasury to secure the convention, and it must have a healthy block of seats to give to the leading citizens who subscribed the fund. Usually each $50 subscription to the convention fund brings a ticket to the donor, and probably half of the gallery space is assigned in that way.

Then each member of the national committee of the party claims a block of seats for his party leaders. All senators, congressmen, governors, and myriads of lesser office holders claim the right to seats for themselves or their families or friends or all three. All substantial contributors to the last campaign fund expect to be taken care of. The list of applicants grows and grows, and the ticket committee, a sub-committee of the national committee, finds its troubles growing every hour as convention time draws near. The unlucky gentlemen are constantly assailed with the threat that unless they make ten thousand seats hold a hundred thousand applicants, the party is sure to lose whole states in the election because important people will be offended.

The ticket committee has but one satisfaction. It knows that after the first day or two of the convention there will be many vacant seats, because the same people will not come to all sessions. Hence it gayly proceeds to issue a lot of general admission tickets, leaving it to the ushers to straighten the matter out when the people arrive.

Jobs in Demand.

The appointment of officials to manage a convention is almost as troublesome as the tickets. A whole army of ushers, sergeant-at-arms and door-tenders are needed, and political pressure is brought to bear to secure every one of these positions. Clerks for committees are equally in demand. Usually many more of these positions are filled than there is actual need of, since most of the convention helpers either work for nothing or for a nominal wage, and every appointment is presumed to make friends and votes for the party.

The radio, lighting, telegraph, photographic, and acoustic arrangements are business matters with less politics mixed into them. Immense lights must be installed so that still and motion pictures may be made inside the hall. Renting the lights and paying the expert operators is a heavy expense. At the last Democratic convention, which lasted three weeks, the committee ran out of funds and had to abandon spotlights the last few days.

The radio plans always aim at a fair, unbiased broadcast, but listeners often complain if the announcers say too much about one or another candidate. Photographic privileges are at a premium, especially the right to take the official picture of the opening of the convention. National committees usually refuse the cash offers for the privilege, and have one picture made of which prints are supplied to all photographic companies alike.

The food and drink concessions are often sold by the national committee, soft drinks being a big item of revenue because conventions are held in June and usually are very warm affairs.

The program of a national convention follows time honored custom, and while it involves a great waste of time, it is hard to break up old ways, and there is also a feeling that the convention city, having paid upward of a hundred thousand dollars to get the crowd, is entitled to a week at least in which to recover its money. Of course a deadlocked convention, like the last two Democratic gatherings, lasts more than a week anyhow, but a convention like the last Republican gathering at Cleveland, with very little unsettled in advance except the candidate for vice president, could probably have finished its work in two days if necessary.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache Often Means You Have Not Been Drinking Enough Water.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating foods which create acids, says a well-known authority. An excess of such acids overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells, your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the system, so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink. Drink lots of soft water.

RICHLAND COAL PROPERTY SOLD

Important mining properties in the northern panhandle district of West Virginia changed hands yesterday at public sale conducted under an order entered by Judge William E. Baker in the United States district court. The Richland Collieries company of Delaware, purchased the properties of the Richland Coal company, The Richland Block Coal company and the Ferguson Coal company, once controlled by the late J. C. McKinley, on a bid of $750,000. The bid was the minimum, as the court order stipulated that no bid lower than $750,000 could be accepted by the special commissioners.

Thomas Reith, of Philadelphia, representing the purchasers, offered the bid yesterday morning, and he predicted after the transfer had been made that the properties will be placed in operation within a period of one year.

George R. L. Gilchrist, and Edwin F. Kline, Wheeling attorneys, and Attorney R. L. Ransley, of Wellsburg, were the special sale commissioners.

The property was sold as the culmination of a long period of litigation in federal court, and includes 8,025 acres of Pittsburgh vein coal in Ohio and Brooke counties, as well as 202 acres of surface land, miners homes, tipples, trackage and other mining buildings and equipment.

THIS MAYOR IS OUT TO GET EVEN!

Revenge is sweet! Newburyport, Mass., has just installed Andrew J. ("Bossy") Gills, ex-gob and filling station magnate, as its mayor.

When Andrew was just a plain, ordinary citizen he took his share of hard knocks. Quite a number of fellow townsmen, in his opinion, slipped a fast one over on him now and then.

But now Andrew is going to "get hunk."

He's treasured a list of the gentlemen in question, and now that he's taken the oath of office, he's going to swing the axe on those who have incurred his displeasure, the following, to wit, viz:

1 fire chief;
1 city solicitor;
1 assessor;
1 highway superintendent;
not to mention a rash petty official who had the new mayor pinched once upon a time for selling gas without a permit.

FOUR CONVERTS AT REVIVAL

Dr. T. J. Logan Preaches in Baptist Church.

Four persons professed conversion at the First Baptist church revival service last night. Rev. Thomas J. Logan, D. D., Scotch-Irish evangelist, who is assisting in the meetings, preached on the subject, "Prepare To Meet Thy God, Oh Israel."

In the absence of Rev. Howard Parry, Alliance, Harry Chilton led the service. A special number was rendered by a ladies' quartet.

Rev. Parry will deliver his sermon, "Heaven Allures Us Home" in song at tonight's service. This will be followed by a prayer meeting and song service at midnight. There will be a service at the usual hour Saturday night.

FAVORITE SONS IN REVIEW AT
DEMS' DINNER

Seven Hours of Oratory on Jackson Day.

URGE HARMONY

Wide Ocean of Difference to be Crossed.

By George R. Holmes.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—A dozen Democratic presidential possibilities were paraded before the best minds of the party today, and while all of them pleaded eloquently for harmony the seven solid hours of oratory that accompanied their appearance disclosed that there still is a wide ocean of differences to cross before the Huston convention and the November election.

The Jackson Day dinner of the Democrats came to an end in the small hours of this morning. It began last night, and for hour after hour the favorite sons of the party, from Gov. Al Smith to William G. McAdoo, passed in review before 1,500 of the party stalwarts gathered from the four corners of the country. Smith was not present in person, but delivered his view via a letter to the gathering.

There wasn't much harmony in the views presented, but also there wasn't any open fighting.

From two militant Democratic governors, Al Smith of New York, and Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland, the diners heard that prohibition is one of the foremost issues confronting the party and the nation. Both urged the party not to temporize with the issue either in its platform or its candidates, but on the contrary to take a definite stand concerning it.

"SOLID SOUTH"
GETS DEM MEET

Houston, Texas, is Site of 1928 Convention.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Democratic leaders had not recovered today from their surprise at the Democratic national convention going into the "solid south" for the first time since the Civil war.

The selection of Houston, Texas, as the convention site this year aroused varying emotions in the minds of prominent Democrats. Not all of them approved it, but comparatively few thought it had any political significance.

The backers of Gov. Alfred E. Smith of New York, declared their satisfaction with the selection. They privately asserted that it would be "a fine thing" to have the New York governor nominated in the solid south. Some of Smith's opponents, however, among them Senator Thomas J. Heflin of Alabama, construed the selection of Houston as a district slap at Smith's chances.

IN FOSTORIA

Blaze Follows Blast in Pressed Steel Plant.

FOSTORIA, O., Jan. 13.—Fire, resulting from the explosion of an overheated enameling furnace, which swept through the enamel sector of the Fostoria Pressed Steel company plant here late yesterday, caused damage of $20,000, according to estimates today.

Fanned by a strong wind, the flames threatened to destroy the entire plant for a time but were subdued after three hours' work by fire-fighters. Two workmen, overcome by smoke, were quickly revived. The loss was covered by insurance. The sector will be rebuilt.

BEWARE THE
COUGH OR COLD
THAT HANGS ON

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

"GORILLA" WINS SCREEN FANS

All-star Cast in Picture at Ceramic.

An all-star cast supports Charlie Murray and Fred Kelsey, who play Mulligan and Garrity in "The Gorilla," the sensational mystery-comedy at the Ceramic theatre. Edward Small produced this hilarious mystery comedy by Ralph Spence for First National Pictures.

Tully Marshall and Claude Gillingwater, as William and Cyrus Townsend, are seen as the two principal mysterious characters.

Alice Day, as Alice Townsend, the only female member of the story, plays a straight part and was chosen from a wide number of candidates. Walter Pidgeon has the part of Lawrence Stevens. Marsden will be played by Gaston Glass, and the smart-cracking reporter will be portrayed by Brooks Benedict. Syd Crossly is the butler and Aggie Herring the temperamental cook.

This completely rounds out the cast excepting for the Gorilla and that part is to remain a mystery until Mulligan and Garrity solve the baffling problem.

Alfred Santell, who recently completed "The Patent Leather Kid," handled the megaphone.

The producer's idea of having "The Gorilla" remain a complete mystery until completed, was carried through. No member of the cast received the last three pages of script and no one knew the identity of the Gorilla until the final scenes. This even applied to Mulligan and Garrity, the famous sleuths.

Rely on Ruth

[every day in the month!]

Business girls who let menstrual periods interfere with duty have not learned of Midol. This remarkable preparation neither hinders nor hastens the natural process of menstruation, but it does stop the pain. Midol is not a narcotic. It is just as safe as it is direct and certain. It is only common sense to use it. You have probably tried other things for menstrual pains, but so had the many thousands of women who today bless Midol. It brings complete ease in five to seven minutes. Or prevents pain even starting, if taken in time. Every drugstore has the trim little aluminum case of Midol to tuck in your purse, for fifty cents.

TURNER TOSSES HAT IN RING FOR GOVERNOR

Attorney General to Seek G. O. P.
Nomination.

PRIMARY FIGHT

Promises as Vigorous Campaign as Duties
Permit.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 13.—Attorney General Edward C. Turner today formally announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for governor of Ohio. The gubernatorial nominations, Democratic and Republican, will be made at the state-wide primaries next August.

Although, as yet, no formal pronouncements of candidates for the Democratic nomination for governor of the Buckeye state have been made, it is expected that Congressman Martin D. Davy, Kent; Charles V. Truax, estate director of agriculture, and J. C. Beatty, East Liverpool pottery sales manager, will be candidates.

Congressman James T. Rebb, Sandusky; Carl Thompson, Cleveland; Myers Y. Cooper, Cincinnati; former Congressman Roscoe McCullough, Canton, and former Lieutenant Governor Charles H. Lewis, Harpster, have been urged by their friends to enter the race for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

"I shall be a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor and will conduct as vigorous a campaign as the duties of my present office will permit," Turner declared in a letter, addressed to the East Side Republican club, of Columbus, thanking the club for its recent endorsement of Turner for the G. O. P. nomination for governor.

"The province of platform-making rests with the party, yet my own position on all matters pertaining to state government will be made clear and not left to interference, or speculation," Turner wrote.

Don't be too sure you can do anything the other fellow can. He can see the back of your neck.—Postoria Times.

River Victim's Body Still Unidentified

Floater is Found on Beach Off Twenty-first Street; Police Notify Pittsburgh Authorities.

Municipal authorities today were endeavoring to identify the body of the man found late yesterday afternoon on the river beach near Twenty-first street by John Rehman.

Obtaining nothing from the pockets in the clothing on the man's body to aid them in their search for his identity, police and other officials notified Pittsburgh authorities.

The body was taken to the D. N. MacLean funeral home and later will be placed in the receiving vault at Spring Hill cemetery. Unless identification is made within the next three or four days, the body will be buried. Although the man's head had been bruised somewhat, authorities discount the theory of foul play, inasmuch as seven dollars in money was found in his clothing. It is possible, authorities claim, that the bruises may have been sustained while the body was in the water. It is believed the body had been floating for possibly two weeks.

The man would weigh in the neighborhood of 225 pounds. He is six feet tall. He wore a good tan slicker, brand new overalls and jacket, and one brand new rubber boot. The other evidently had been lost in the water.

The Pittsburgh bureau of missing persons has been notified by the MacLean funeral home.

500 EMPLOYEES CALLED BACK TO THEIR JOBS

Starting Order is Received by Assistant Manager.

FULL TIME RUN

Resumption Will Mark End of Long Suspension.

William E. Knox, assistant manager of the Wellsville plant of the American Sheet and Tin Plate works, today announced definitely that the mill will resume operations on Wednesday, February 1.

Resumption of operations will mark the conclusion of approximately a five-week period of idleness for hot mill employees and three to four weeks for workers in other departments.

About 500 workers will be called back to their jobs by the starting order which was received late yesterday afternoon by Assistant Manager Knox.

The latter today indicated that the future looked brighter than it has for some time and, while pointing out that the work schedule necessarily always depended upon orders and the demands of the trade, the prospects for the next few months at least were far from gloomy.

While complete details of starting arrangements were still somewhat indefinite, it presumed that the hot mills and, necessarily, the other departments, will go on a full time basis of three eight-hour shifts.

Knox is in charge of mill operations during the absence of Manager B. J. Ross, in Florida.

SEEK UPTOWN HOSPITAL SITE

J. H. Mosby, 18th St. Grocer, Offers Building Plot.

While whatever committee for committees are named to take charge of the city's participation in the $50,000 gift from Byron Beacom for the construction of a hospital, will doubtless consider the site offered yesterday by J. H. Mosby, Eighteenth street grocer, it was understood today that the philanthropist would like to see the structure erected on ground some place between Fifth street and Ninth street.

Mosby, following announcement of Beacom's offer, announces that he will give to the city free of charge a plot of ground with a frontage of 195 feet on Commerce street and 125 on Eighteenth street for the purpose of constructing the hospital.

However, it is understood that the donor of the gift would prefer a site in the uptown district, to be located at any favorable spot between Fifth and Ninth streets, although there is no indication, it is said, that this is absolutely compulsory.

STRAND OFFERS "DESERT DUST"

Ted Wells, Young Texan, in Story of Outdoors.

The hard-riding, hard-fighting young Texan, Ted Wells, has scored another hit in his latest Universal Western production, "Desert Dust," which had its premiere at the Strand theatre here today and is to be the feature attraction for two days.

In the role of Frank Fortune, an adventurous young ranch owner, he again brings to the screen the good, clean, wholesome atmosphere of the great outdoors and when it comes to performing the dexterous feats of the old-time cowpuncher nothing is too hard for him.

The picture opens with a real honest-to-goodness horse race and it is liberally sprinkled with thrilling incidents, including a hand-to-hand fistic encounter which finds the hero and his followers in jail, later to be rescued by the beautiful blonds, Lotus Thompson.

The action of the well-written plot centers around the reformation of criminals through the kindness of the pretty heroine who keeps them on her ranch. Things are progressing in fine shape when the men start fighting among themselves and Frank is sentenced to ride with the pretty Lotus so that she might use her personal influence to redeem him.

During this so-called period of probation her uncle comes to visit her with a large sum of state funds and Frank is placed in a position where he receives all the blame when the money is stolen by the other criminals on the ranch. How it is retrieved and the girl saved is thrillingly told in a dramatic finish which includes everything from fist fights to automobile and horse racing.

The supporting cast which includes Bruce Gordon, Jimmie Phillips, Bob McKenzie and others come in for their share of honors.

Don't Be A Mother Hubbard

The modern homemaker knows that it is quite as important to keep the linen cupboard well filled, as to have an assortment of nice fresh bones in the kitchen one. Sheets, pillow cases and towels are mundane things, but a plentiful supply are essential to your peace of mind when the unexpected guest arrives, or illness in the family depletes your reserve stock.

Why not check over your cupboard right now, while the thought occurs to you. Make a list of what you need, and the next time you are shopping drop in and examine our stocks. If you will check our prices against those you had expected to pay, you will be pleasantly surprised.

Hurst's High School Squad Set For Salem Battle Tonight

Springer's Quint Wins One In Five

Girls' Teams of Two Schools are Matched in Prelim.

Joe Hurst's high school basketballers plunge into Columbiana county cage circles tonight when they take on Springer's Salem high school quint on the local court.

A two-game bill is arranged with the north countians, the girls' teams of the two institutions being paired off in the preliminary.

Having met only one team that has been common thus far to both schedules, the activities of the Salem and East Liverpool fives up until the present time provide little upon which comparisons can be built.

The Hurstmen lost to Akron East in the second game of their schedule by a margin of something like 12 points, while the Salem squad, playing also on the Orientals' home court, was nosed out by a couple of points in an overtime contest.

That in itself would seem to testify to the prowess of the Salemites, as well as their victory over Cleveland West Commerce, but the remainder of their schedule bespeaks only defeats. In addition to Ekron East, the Alliance high five, the Alumni and Kent State defeated Salem.

However, Springer was up against pretty much the same difficulty that Hurst faced here at the season. Only two Salem veterans responded to the call this winter, Sidinger and Allen, and the latter is just recovering from a recent illness.

The Salem girls have played two games to date, winning from the Alumni and losing at Struthers.

Hurst's squad will entertain the Wellsville school quint here tomorrow night.

South's New Hope

The latest white hope to be offered by the south is Addison Exum Warren, University of North Carolina graduate, who has just cast his lot with the professionals and has signed with Jimmy Bronson, New York manager. Warren is a light heavy.

ELKS DEFEAT LISBON PASSERS

Big Three - Cornered Diamond Deal Looms

Rumor Brooklyn, New York and Philadelphia Dicker for Players.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—In the wake of the deal that sent Rogers Hornsby to Boston for Frank Hogan and Jimmy Welsh, rumors were current here today that Brooklyn, Philadelphia and the New York Giants are planning a three-cornered deal. The players named by diamond gossips are Welsh-Drazzy Vance, Brooklyn pitching ace; Fresco Thompson, Philly second baseman, and Virgil Barnes and Fred Lindstrom of the Giants.

John McGraw, manager of the Giants, wants Thompson. He is said to have started negotiations before going to Havana. William F. Baker, owner of the Phillies, was in Brooklyn yesterday.

McGraw said in Havana that last year Brooklyn refused to give up Vance even for the great Hornsby. In view of this, it is not believed that the Robins would trade the players king for any other player or players that New York or Philadelphia might offer.

Salineville Beats Quakers; Score 42 to 18

That the first half championship of the Columbiana County Amateur Basketball league race will be definitely decided when the Salineville Kivans and the East Liverpool Elks clash here next Friday night became more than a probability today as a result of the victory of the Cartwright aggregation over Damascus last night at Salineville.

Exp. station of a close game went away when the Salineville quint turned in a decisive 42 to 18 triumph over the Quakers in their first meeting of the season. The two teams have still to play at Damascus.

Cartwright's quint gave the visitors only five field goals in last night's tussle, four by Gilbert and one by Grice. Raffle, Salineville guard, and Beckwith, forward, chucked in nine and six, respectively.

Schaefer Boosts Lead.
NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—As a result of victories in two more blocks, Jake Schaefer is now leading Welker Cochran by 2,400 to 2,006 in their 3,600 point 181 ballline match. Schaefer gained 111 points in the two blocks. Cochran gave the Chicagoan a hard fight in last night's block, losing by the close score of 300 to 297. Schaefer had a brilliant run of 167.

JOHNNY RISKO NEXT FOR EX-GOB

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—If Jack Sharkey gets by Tom Heeney tonight his next opponent will be Johnny Risko, of Cleveland. This was practically decided at a conference between the Boston heavyweight, his managers, and Tex Rickard. Risko, who arrived from Cleveland yesterday accompanied by his manager, Danny Dunn, said he would fight any one Rickard selects.

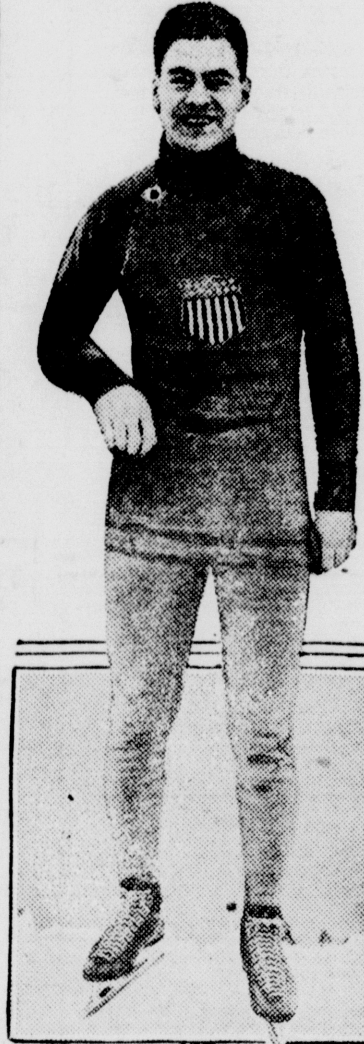

No contracts were signed but it is probable that this match will take place in March or April. A Risko-Heeney match is not being considered inasmuch as Heeney took a decision from Risko in Detroit last November. If the New Zealander defeats Sharkey tonight he will demand either Dempsey or Tunney as his next opponent.

Victory Is 7th In Row For Antlers

Sigma Deltas Win From Fords in Prelim Contest.

In a basketball contest where both teams concentrated on offense and let defense take care of itself, the Elks added another County league victory to their list when they won over the Lisbon passers last night on the local floor by the score of 53 to 42.

By copying last night's affair the Elks maintained the top position in the County league race, and incidentally hung up their seventh straight win.

Canne started the scoring right at the toss-up, sinking a pretty one from center. P. Hum got Lisbon's first basket, tying the score. Canne and McCutcheon followed up with field goals for the Elks. W. Hum and Johnson registered buckets for Lisbon, tying the score at six-all. Wilson kept busy and sank two straight double deuckers for the Elks. McConville kept up the good work for another. Wilson was fouled in the act of shooting and he made good on both shots. Wilson swished in another basket for the Elks. Johnson and Sullivan cut the Elks' lead when they came through with floor goals. Wilson banked in another bucket giving the Elks the lead, 18 to 10, for the first quarter.

P. Hum started the scoring in the second period with a field goal. Wilson replied with a basket for the Elks. McCutcheon tossed for the basket was good for two more points. P. Hum got a foul. W. Hum sank another Lisbon basket. P. Hum got another one-pointer for Lisbon. Sullivan shot in a Lisbon basket. Canne dropped the last two baskets for the Elks and Hoopes, who had taken Johnson's place, made the last field goal of the half for Lisbon, making the score 26 to 20 in the Elks' favor for the first half.

Johnson was back at center for Lisbon when the second half started. Warren taking P. Hum's position at guard. Hoopes and Johnson scored field goals to put the Lisbon passers within two points of tying the score. Canne increased the Elks' narrow lead with a field bucket. Warren kept step with a field goal. Pusey widened the gap with two more baskets for the Antlers. Anderson took McCutcheon's place at guard. After Anderson went in the Elks began to play basketball that was too good for the Lisbon passers to keep up with, and during the remainder of the game the Elks easily piled up points.

All the Elks that started the game played bangup basketball all the way and all figured in the scoring. Wilson, Pusey and Canne were the big noise for the Antlers in scoring, the trio contributing 44 points to the Elks' cause. Anderson, who was in there the biggest part of the second half, played real basketball and called it a night with two buckets.

All the Lisbon boys gave a good exhibition of the court game. Johnson with eight field goals and a foul point was their scoring ace.

In the prelim the Sigma Deltas won from the Lisbon New Fords, 40 to 21.

REPORT $12,502 IN FINDINGS AT OHIO VILLAGE

Former Clerk Named in Newcomerstown Examination.

STATE INQUIRY

Alleged Illegal Payments Listed by Inspector.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 13.—Finding for recovery, totaling $12,502.21, all in favor of the Newcomerstown village treasury, were contained in a report, made public here today by State Auditor Joseph Tracy. The report, which covers an examination of the records of this Tuscarawas county village, also claimed that illegal payments, aggregating $6,754.28, were made.

The report was filed by State Examiner Ralph A. Riegler, who inspected the village records for the period from May 13, 1925, to August 1, last.
Claim was made in the report that Harry Dillehay, former clerk of the village, owed the village treasury $8, 898.67, as follows: "Underdeposits, $4, 270.19; fraudulent checks, $154.90; over-payment of salary, $150; fraudulent check, $400; bonds and coupons, $3, 923.58." The report noted that Dille-hay paid back into the treasury the $150 salary excess.
According to the report, William
Ellis Haines owed the village $3,323.54 as "overpayment" in connection with the purchase by the village from Haines of the property formerly belonging to the Newcomerstown Water company, for $3,323.54. The report stated that Haines bought this property for $50,000.
The Oxford bank was credited in the report with having paid into the village treasury a finding of $280 which had been returned against the bank in favor of the village examiner Riegler because of an alleged error in the payment of coupons.
Alleged illegal payments contained in the report included those of $3, 672.50 by the village of Newcomerstown to the Dravo-Doyle company, Pittsburgh, Pa., for pumps for the water works plant, $3,003.96 as payments made in 1924 to the Home Building company water line, which payments, it was claimed in the report, had not been authorized by council or the board of public affairs.

Western New York
Farmer Shoots White
Crow on His Land

FARMINGTON, N. Y.—Scoters who have branded the tales of the appearance of white crows as fabrications or over indulgence in "Old Crow" were confounded by the evidence in the hands of Francis Herendeen, of Farmington, who is having a perfect specimen of an albino crow, the first capture on record in Western New York, mounted.

flock of its normally colored brethren who were feeding on the bodies of muskrats which had been trapped and skinned. Although scientists report that albinos invariably have pink eyes the crow shot by Herendeen has the conventional black eyes.

Churches To Observe Prohibition Day Here

Special Services Planned
Sunday in Celebration of Eighth Anniversary of Ratification of Eightteenth Amendment.

Special sermons, dealing with the progress of the temperance movement and law enforcement, will be delivered in many of East Liverpool's churches next Sunday in observance of the eighth anniversary of national prohibition.

The Anti-Saloon League of America has outlined a program, in which churches are asked to arrange a two-day program ending at noon hour Monday with the ringing of church bells. Superintendent of Schools C. S. McVay has received a circular letter from J. L. Clifton, state director of education, Columbus, calling his attention to a section of the general code which requires the teaching of temperance in the schools. Clifton suggested that a program be presented in each room today.

The tentative program, outlined by Clifton, includes the reading of the Eighteenth amendment, flag salute and other patriotic features. Principals of the several elementary schools will be in charge of the programs.

"HAM AND EGGS AT FRONT" HIT

Screen Novelty at American Proves Winner.

"Ham and Eggs at the Front," one of Warner Bros.' feature pictures, proved three things at its opening presentation yesterday at the American theatre. The first of these was that it was the greatest novelty on the screen at the present time, the second, that in those clever vaudevillians, Tom Wilson and Heinie Conklin, together with the exotic Myrna Loy, it has one of the cleverest trilogues ever seen on the screen, and in the third, that it is one of the most hilarious and mirth-provoking pictures that has ever threatened to remove the buttons from a movie fan's vest.

"Ham and Eggs at the Front" is a novelty inasmuch as its characters are all of burn cork hue. The only white spot in it is on a dog and it is not much of a white spot at that. The whole story is centered in the colored troops that answered Uncle Sam's call during the great war. When first seen these children of Ham are in France in all their innocence and child-like blandness. There is a Senegalese maiden, played by Miss Loy, who clutters up the feverish emotions of the doughboys and there is a poker game, played in an old barn while the men are awaiting the call to the front, that is a series of screams.

Of the three stars, Wilson, Conklin and Miss Loy, it may be said that they were never seen to better advantage. The entire cast is fine and the production on the whole one to be commended. The story of "Ham and Eggs at the Front" is by Darryl Francis Zanuck, while its screen adaptation is by James Starr and Robert Dillon.

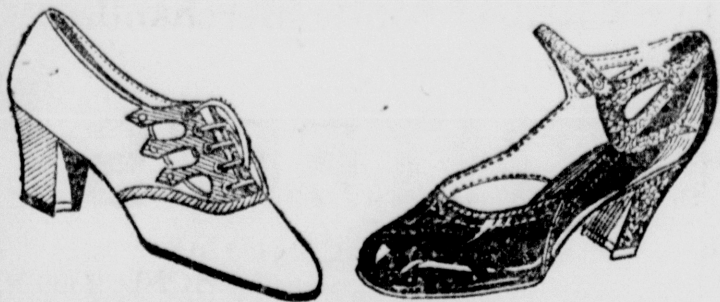

"Ham and Eggs at the Front" is a bully good picture and is bully well done.

The OUTER GATE by OCTAVUS ROY COHEN

Borden's confession would be then. And if what Kathleen said were true, all of Carmody's terrible power would be employed to make his sentence heavy. He shuddered.
For the first time since leaving prison, he placed a true value on his freedom. At first he had accepted it as a fact, scarcely understanding the miracle. But now that he was in danger, he saw for the first time that there was a price too great to pay for that freedom. He remembered the daily breakfasts, the dark steel-and-concrete cell blocks, the march to the mills, the eternal clackety-clack of shuttles—the drab, hopeless, monotonous prison routine; the squinty eyes and twisted faces of his daily acquaintances! His whole body cringed.

He wanted to throw the bonds away; to rid himself once and for all of their menace. Yet, after all, it was $200,000, and one does not throw such an amount into the gutter. He clung to the package and counted the creeping minutes.
At ten minutes before the appointed hour he was in the restaurant. It was virtually empty; a few patrons sat here and there, but the noon rush had not yet started. He selected the same table he and Kathleen had occupied the day before, and sat pressing the heel of one foot on the toe of the other, left hand clenched tightly over the package of bonds. His eyes moved restlessly about the modest place; he feared to see Carmody or Peter Borden or Whispering Willie Weaver. Or Eddie Mulcahy, Carmody's gun shoe man.

Kathleen Shannon was at the table before he knew she was in the place, and he flashed her a startled glance. She smiled reassuringly.
"Have you the bonds, Bob?"
He shoved them toward her. "They're in that newspaper." Then, "For God's sake, be careful, Kathleen."
"I won't lose them."
"I don't mean that. I mean I'm afraid to have the things around. I've suffered this morning—"

"Regret?"
"I don't know. Really I don't. Maybe it is regret and maybe it's fear. You scared me. I don't want you to become involved in this mess."
"Don't worry Bob." Her voice was cheerful, her eyes unnaturally bright. "Everything will work out right."
"You have packed?"
"Yes."
"We marry in Chicago?"
"You're sure that is what you want, Bob?"
"Of course."
"Whatever you wish—" He noticed that her cheeks were colorless.
The waiter appeared and they ordered. And because they were both under terrific strain, they chatted with assumed lightness. The place was filling; there was a steady scraping of chairs, the sound of feet, the clatter of crockery and silverware. He saw Kathleen reach across the table, transfer the parcel of bonds from the newspaper to the bag she carried, then fold the newspaper carefully and replace it ostentatiously on the table. She seemed to radiate strength and courage, and Bob felt some of his fright vanish. But he was not happy. Bewilderment still clogged him, and he felt a sense of impending tragedy.

Kathleen was toying with her fork. Suddenly she rose and started forward her face was pallid, but there was a smile on her lips and her hand was outstretched. Bob's amazed eyes followed her.
"Lois!"

She smiled upon him; a wan, tired little smile that was strangely without animation, and, as from a distance, he heard Kathleen's cool, quiet voice:
"Please have a seat, Miss Borden. Sit down, Bob."

WASHINGTON STEWART'S LETTER

By Charles P. Stewart.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Forged documents, of a sort calculated to make international trouble, have become too much of a pest in Washington to be borne.

No matter what the final verdict of the senate committee now engaged in investigating one special batch of papers purporting to show anti-American activities on Mexico's part, it's well established that enough bogus literature of this character is in circulation to be desperately annoying, if not worse.

In short, officials who handle certain classes of the government's foreign business find themselves in constant peril of falling into unpleasant, even dangerous, traps.

IF MOTHERS ONLY KNEW

During these days how many children are complaining of Headache, Feverishness, Stomach Troubles and Irrigular Bowels and take cold easily. If mothers only knew what Mother Gray's Sweet Powders would do for their children, no family would ever be without them for use when needed. These powders are so easy and pleasant to take and so effective in their action that mothers who once use them gladly tell others about them. Save yourself a night of worry, by getting a package at your druggist today. Trial Package sent FREE.

Address Mother Gray Co., Le Roy, N. Y.

INDEED, this may actually have happened oftener than most of us know anything about. "Because," as Senator Chipstead, of the foreign relations committee of the upper house of congress, remarks, "the victim of one of these misadventures seldom cares to relate his experience."

The senator's comment is somewhat to the point, inasmuch as he side-stepped just such a deadfall himself, not so long ago.

The Minnesota solon has the reputation of quite frequently defending the Latin-American republics, in their squabbles with the United States, on the ground that they often are more sinned against than sinning.

Consequently he assumes that it was expected he would welcome documentary evidence, offered to him, of a plot by interests on this side of the border to foment a revolution in Mexico.

Whether the so-called information's purveyors simply wanted or intended to stick a pin in it, as snide, at the psychological moment, too, placing the senator in an idiotic position after he'd raised a fuss, he can't say.

He didn't bite, so he failed to find out that detail. "Some people," observed the Minnesota solon, "think we senators are a bit too easy about accepting all the alleged facts they bring to us, but believe me, we need to be."

But why so much Mexican-American "documentary evidence" just now? Why so much more of it than of any of the other international varieties?

"Oh," explained the senator, "the present demand for the Mexican-American brand. There's bound to be a liberal supply of any sort there's a market for."

AT any rate, there are many signs that the executive end of the government is out of patience with the "forged document" epidemic.

For one thing, President Coolidge is bent upon ending his term in the White House to the tune of a magnificent good-relationship chorus, including the voices of all the Latin American republics, as well as the United States.

Then, too, of late the forgers really have been getting too "raw." They're troublesome.

THE folk the sleuth bounds are on the trail of now are the individuals who actually do the work.

It's recognized that some of their customers may be honestly taken in. Some officials certainly have fallen for what are now known to have been forgeries.

With a little co-operation across the border, an excellent prospect is seen of knocking the traffic on the head, and maybe of putting some of the traders where they won't be such a nuisance for a long time to come.

German Brewer Faces 14,977 Years in Jail On Fraud Charge

PARIS.—Otto Nodding will serve 14,977 years in prison or pay his fine of eighty-two million marks according to the finding of the Mayence courts.

Herr Nodding is a brewer and was found guilty of defrauding the government in taxes—the court fined him eighty-two million marks.

Nodding is not in a position to pay the fine. The law provided a one day prison term for each fifteen marks the condemned is unable to pay, which makes in Nodding's case 14,977 years.

The Way of the World

BY GROVE PATTERSON

PLENTY OF ROOM

Out beyond the stars that we can see, even on the most gorgeous summer night, some five quintillion miles away, there are some more universes full of stars. It would take millions of years for the light of these stars to reach the earth. But astronomers have discovered these far-flung universes. For whatever plan the maker of all the universe has for human-kind, he has room enough. We can be sure of that.

IN THE LIGHT

The late Judge Gary, head of the Steel Corporation, made no greater contribution to the conduct of big business than when he said, "The people have a right to know how the people's business is being carried on. The more they do know about it the better it will be for business. Big business, like human life, cannot thrive properly in the dark."

WHAT LIFE IS

It was this same wise Judge Gary who remarked that he was more interested in life than in longevity. He wasn't concerned so much in how long he lived as in how he lived. "I was never much interested in hanging on," he said. "Life consists of the things we do, the things we make. The give and take which go to make up human organization. Business. Co-operation. Knowledge. Work. These are things that interest me."

THE WIRY GERM

The forces which prey on life have a discouraging amount of endurance. Continued freezing can not kill the bacteria which cause typhoid fever. University of Illinois professors kept a colony of typhoid germs alive in ice cream at four degrees below zero for two years.

The enemies of life, physically and spiritually, are real, active, wide awake.

WE HAVE TO TRY HARD. Speaking of the enemies of life, we are confronted constantly with enemies that could break down character. No one can middle along without effort into a better sort of human being. Drifting never means drifting on. If we are interested in getting into an improved state, physically, mentally, spiritually, we have to make a definite effort. It's a job which has to be worked at.

Slips, falls, failures are to be taken simply as signals to start again.

Bulwer now has 120 moving picture theatres.

How THE Other Half Behaves

Anyway It Got By.

COATSVILLE, Pa.—"My friend was sick, he was hungry and he wanted some hot dog sandwiches, ice cream and pie, so I started to Coatsville to get him the eats," so declared a man arraigned in police court on a charge of driving an auto without a muffler on the exhaust, the machine creating a great noise. "Was the muffler on the car when you started?" "Yes, sir, but I was in such a hurry to get the eats I didn't notice when I lost it." He was discharged.

Judge Turns Santa.

WASHINGTON, Mich. — Several days ago a young man came to Washington penniless and in search of a job. When he failed to find employment he asked police to arrest him as a vagrant so that he might be sent to jail and out of the cold. They did, but when the story was told to Judge Pitt, he instead of passing sentence passed his hat around the courtroom, collecting more than $10. Then Attorney Harry Whelan stepped forward and promised to take care of the youth and get him a job.

Sunny Spain Revue At American Theatre

Anita Garcia, Dancer, Filipino Collegians Appear With Novel Stage Feature and Photoplay.

There's a flash from sunny Spain this week at the American theatre.

Anita Garcia, petite dancer, and the Filipino College revue are offering a delightful different dancing revue premiere of which was presented to theatregoers yesterday afternoon. Additional performances will be given today and Saturday in connection with the film feature, "Ham and Eggs at the Front," in which Tom Wilson and Heinie Conklin enact the headline roles.

Miss Garcia's dancing is one of the distinct features of the vaudeville section of the American's program while the soft strummed melodies of the Filipino boys, blending with the harmony of the castanets provides a pleasing sensation to the ear.

Beautiful costuming and scenic investiture add to the attractiveness of the entertainment.

Miss Garcia's act is off the Keith-Albee circuit for special presentation this week at the local show house.

time for many gatherings of party leaders outside the convention hall, planning for campaign work, and renewing old friendships, are really part of the convention. Thus the first day usually has little on the program except the speech of the temporary chairman, which is the keynote speech of the convention. The convention is in session only two or three hours that day. The second day takes care of routine committee reports on the rules and procedure and permanent organization of the convention, and the permanent chairman makes his speech, which is another general rallying cry to the party, and is addressed actually to the country at large.

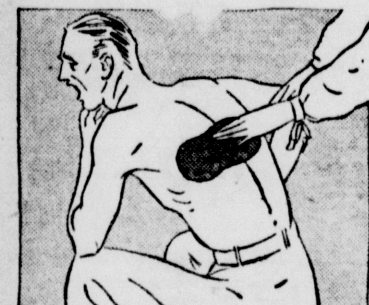

The third day may find some real debate over the party platform, and may also find time for the nominating speeches, or part of them. If many candidates for the presidency are in the field, the nominating and seconding speeches may fill a whole day. By this time the crowding for gallery seats is not so great, and many of the delegates will also be absent part of the time.

Balloting for the nominee seldom begins until the fourth day, and sometimes not until the fifth. From that time forward balloting is the only business on hand, until the nomination is made. The vice-presidential nomination usually requires but little time after the head of the ticket has been selected.

Interspersed in the program each day there is music, usually some famous singer, and plenty of band music and singing by the convention. Then there are hours consumed by the "demonstrations" for the various candidates. These appear spontaneous, but while partly so are also carefully staged by the backers of each candidate. Cheers of the college football type are delivered, and leather-lunged youths lead the outbursts. Delegates and visitors march around the hall, banners are waved, and there is a great to-do.

The delegates and guests do not always know it, but the chairman or sergeant-at-arms of the convention really has much to do with controlling the length of the demonstrations, by controlling the flood lights and the bands. These are managed by a series of signal buttons on the speakers' stand, with wires leading to the band stands and light stations. When the presiding officer thinks the noise has gone on long enough, a signal stops the band and cuts off the flood lights, and the crowd instinctively subsides without knowing just why.

Already these plans are under way. Already the hotels at the convention cities have thousands of rooms reserved for the foresighted people who know they are going to be on hand. The rooms for the delegates are reserved before the delegates themselves are chosen.

Could not get around, except on crutches, unable to dress or undress myself. Tried everything known to medical science, including two trips to Hot Springs, without relief. Up to this time, had paid out over $10,000, then like a miracle from Heaven, QICKO WONDER LIQUID, was brought to me. "WE"

Epic of the Air

by Chas. A. Lindbergh

(Copyright, 1927, by Chas. A. Lindbergh.)

The next morning was overcast with local showers which were visible in every direction. I took off soon after daybreak and after flying through several storms landed in a hayfield at Forest City, Iowa, where I serviced the ship between showers and took off on the final flight to Shakopee, Minnesota, where I expected to meet my father and carry him around on his campaign.

I found Shakopee covered by a cloudburst and in flying around waiting for the storm to pass so that I could land I got into a heavy shower near Savage. One of the cylinders cut out, and I was circling preparatory to landing in a clover field when two more stopped firing. I was flying at less than two hundred-foot altitude and losing that rapidly. It was necessary to land immediately but the only choice of landing places lay between a swamp and high trees. I took the swamp and cut the throttle. When the wheels touched earth they rolled about twenty feet, sank in to the spreader bar and we nosed over. The rudder did not quite touch the swamp grass and the plane stopped after passing through three-quarters of a semi-circle, with the radiator cap and top wing resting on the ground. I was hanging on the safety belt but when I tried to open the clasp with one hand, holding on with the other, I found it to be jammed. After several futile attempts to open it I reverted to the two strap buckles at the end of the belt to release myself from the cockpit.

All this required not more than two or three minutes.

After getting out of the cockpit I inspected the plane carefully. Again there was little actual damage. The propeller was badly cracked and would have to be replaced; there was a crack in the spreader board which required winding with strong cord. Otherwise the plane was in perfect condition, although splashed with mud.

For once there was no one in sight, and I made my way through the swamp to the nearest farmhouse. On the way I found that there was solid ground along the edge of the swamp less than one hundred yards from the plane, from which I could take off.

The farmer had seen the plane pass over in the rain and was on his way down toward the swamp when I met him. He informed me that it was not possible to get horses through the mire out to the ship and that he had no idea of how I was to get it back to hard sod again.

I borrowed a rope from him to use in pulling the tail back to a normal position and we started back to the swamp.

Meanwhile it seemed that two boys had seen me land, and when I did not emerge from the cockpit immediately, had run to Savage with the news that "an aviator had landed upside down in the swamp" and that they had "gone up and felt his neck and that it was stiff and he was stone dead."

I had flown over the town in the rain only a few minutes before, and as in those days it was not difficult for any one to believe anything about an airplane the town promptly locked its doors and came crawling and wading through the swamp. The older inhabitants followed the railroad track around its edge and by the time I returned with the farmer and a rope there were enough townspeople to solve my problem by carrying the ship back on to solid ground.

They were undoubtedly much disappointed at having come so far on a false alarm, but turned too willingly to help me get the ship out of the swamp.

The next edition of the Minneapolis papers carried the following item, which typically exemplifies what has

J. Randolph
Harrell—
Ph. G., R. Ph.

Prof. Harrell is a Virginia G. birth. Graduate of leading colleges. Instructor of Chemistry and known as an authority on Pharmaceutical and Physiological Chemistry.

Some of the results obtained from the Harrell Combined Treatment have been almost beyond belief—and have astonished even Prof. Harrell himself. Here are just a few extracts:

Mrs. S. Hass of 920 N. 18th St., Kansas City, writes—

"My husband is a barber and stands on his feet all day. He is very large and heavy and his muscles get quite lame. The medicine has done us both a world of good. We went to a dance last night and stepped around quite lively. We are very grateful to you."

Mr. S. I. Jackson of Huntington, Arkansas, writes—

"I cannot express my many thanks for your free treatment. Your medicine has done wonders for me. I have been suffering with Rheumatism for over 20 years and nothing has given me as much relief as your free treatment. Helped me so much, I can now walk around my home, and even cross my legs, something I have not been able to do in some time."

Mr. Max Feig of 560 Beck St., New York, writes—

"Your Rheumatism treatment was received some time ago. I will say it is the best in all the world. I have been suffering from Rheumatism for many years and could not get relief. I have been to many physicians and they did not seem to help me one bit. But as soon as I started to take your treatment I felt as if I was a new person. It certainly did me a world of good. I wish to thank you ever so much, and I hope every one that suffers with Rheumatism knows of your treatment. It sure is good and I will tell all of my friends about it. I thank you again, wishing you the best of luck, I remain."

And read what Mrs. George Storey of Westboro, Missouri, reports—

"I am entirely well and am well satisfied with your treatment. I have suffered with Rheumatism more or less for 10 years. Sometimes I was in bed unable to move hands or feet. All the doctors failed to help me. But you have cured me. Print my letter where ever you please for I am willing and ready anytime to answer any letters who write me in regard of your treatment. Words are too small to express the great good your medicine did for me. Only ones like myself that are picked up from a bed of agony by your treatment will ever realize there could be such a wonderful medicine in the world. We people used to think there was no cure for Rheumatism, but I am here to tell the world it is all a mistake, that there is a cure if they will take your medicine as you say. Every Rheumatism sufferer I meet, I tell them about your treatment and I have already sent several patients to you. Wishing you the best of success, I am."

While Prof. Harrell would not feel justified in promising such rapid results to everyone in America who has Rheumatism, yet these cases like many thousands of others indicate the powers of this Combined Treatment.

Prof. Harrell says:

"Several years ago I turned my attention to the serious study of Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago, Neuritis, Gout and Neuralgia.

I am convinced that the distress of Rheumatism can be quickly remedied and relieved and that there is no good reason for people dragging through life never free from rheumatic pains.

My studies finally led me to the firm conclusion that Rheumatism is usually caused by poor extrusion. That is, the organs of the body that SHOULD throw off the waste matter from the system were not working right. This causes the secretions and dead matter (sometimes called poisons) to start backing up and forming deposits, THEN you will probably contract Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Neuritis, Gout or Neuralgia—and you will have pain and suffering,

So to successfully TREAT Rheumatism it is not only necessary that the kidneys, stomach and bowels be put into proper condition—it is also necessary to eliminate the waste and poisonous matter that has already collected.

I found it entirely impossible to combine the medicines I wished to use, so my treatment comes to you in two distinct forms, and it is the COMBINATION of the two that works such quick and lasting relief.

I am so sure that this Combined Treatment will bring you relief that I am willing to send it to you ENTIRELY FREE so you may test it out and tell your neighbors what it has done for you.

Those of you who have never been able to find relief—either temporary or reasonably permanent—be SURE to try the HARRELL COMBINED TREATMENT. The old stubborn cases are the very ones that I am most anxious to relieve.

Of course if you are just contracting Rheumatism (or any kindred diseases) then you MUST get buy AT ONCE and send for this treatment, so as to RID yourself of your trouble before it becomes FIXED in your system.

If you have been a sufferer from Rheumatism for some weeks or months or years, you will be amazed at the speed with which the Harrell Combined Treatment works.

Virginia Chemist Offers New Hope to sufferers from RHEUMATISM

NEURITIS, SCIATICA, LUMBAGO, GOUT and NEURALGIA PAINS

"I find that only a short use of this Combination Treatment will chase away the pains of Rheumatism like the sun dries up the dew."—J. RANDOLPH HARRELL, Ph. G.—R. Ph.

And now I want to get my treatment into the hands of all those who suffer from Rheumatism, Gout, Sciatica, Neuritis or Neuralgia. So I have decided to send out 50,000 of these wonderful Combination Treatments entirely and absolutely.

FREE!

Just send your name and address, using the coupon if you wish, and I will send you a package of my treatment with all charges paid. You will have nothing to pay on it now or ever.

Within just a few hours you will begin to notice the improvement and will soon find yourself free from pain and feeling fit and fine again.

Of course some very old and very stubborn cases do not yield quite so quickly—and occasionally I find a case that seems hopeless. But the great majority of cases will yield readily to my combined treatment, without delay or further trouble.

That is one of the remarkable points about the Harrell Treatment—the speed and certainty with which it works

I hope you will feel every confidence in this treatment—there is no reason for you to be skeptical when I offer to send you a test treatment FREE!—and I hope you will understand that I believe this to be by far THE BEST general treatment for Rheumatic Suffering ever before worked out. I have spent years considering the treatment and I do not believe its equal can be found anywhere.

When you use the HARRELL Treatment, you are using the very LATEST and BEST and you are entitled to expect BEST RESULTS in the SHORTEST POSSIBLE TIME.

The treatment is SO easy to take. It is even pleasant. Some treatments that I have examined may bring relief from pain for a short while, but they are harmful to the stomach and really leave the patient in a worse condition than before.

I do not use a single narcotic or habit-forming drug. Neither do I have much faith in preparations to be rubbed on—such as liniments, balsams, etc. Any relief from the external applications must be VERY temporary. So I do not recommend them except in an occasional minor trouble such as sore muscles or sprains

The HARRELL Treatment contains nothing harmful—no narcotics or temporary "pain killer" It is intended to eradicate the Rheumatic Conditions from your system and to afford a reasonably PERMANENT relief.

The treatment I will send you will be different in appearance as well as in the combination of drugs from any that you have ever seen or known before. Write for it today SURELY.

I am making it just as easy as possible for you to receive one of my COMBINED TREATMENTS.

All you need do is to write your name and address and send them to me. Use the coupon or a sheet of paper or even a post card.

But do not put off sending for the treatment. Even if you are feeling fairly well right now—remember that Rheumatism unless properly treated, has a habit of "coming back." So be ready for it next time and have one of my test treatments on hand. I do not expect this 50,000 lot of treatments to last long.

So write TODAY—RIGHT NOW. You will surely be interested in this remarkable treatment. In both its form and its results.
